8:30AM – 12:00PM

This seminar is designed to assist LLUSCBA will hold a special informational seminar on January 16 from 8:30 AM to 12 p.m. to review key updates and other key information in the newly published Power of Attorney (POA) Handbook (Fourth Edition). Specifically, this seminar will offer a desktop-level review of the handbook content, including how to get the most value from the book, why certain updates were made, and thoughts from the NCBFAA Customs Legal Counsel regarding the handbook. Don't miss out!

The POA Handbook (Fourth Edition) incorporates recent regulatory changes, as well as a current and exhaustive catalogue of CBP regulations, rulings, decisions, and guidance for reference. The handbook also explains the reason for the POA and the relationship it creates, addresses the activities a POA covers, provides a detailed guide to complete and execute the POA, discusses how to avoid and correct the most common errors, and explains the appropriate maintenance and recordkeeping of the POA. NCBFAA has also updated online POA and Terms and Conditions forms available to members of NCBFAA.

POA Handbook will be available for sale for $240.00 onsite. Books are limited and can be purchased at the LLUSCBA Office. As author of the POA Handbook (Fourth Edition) Lenny Feldman will be available for book signing at this exclusive seminar.

U.S. statutes and regulations are a shared responsibility between the public and private sectors. It is important that US Brokers, Importers of Record and Trade Stakeholders understand their role and have practices in place that can prevent or detect potential problems at critical points along the logistics chain. We encourage you to attend this important seminar as Mr. Rodriguez will offer his expert guidance to help tailor these recommendations into procedures to effectively manage controls to help ensure procedures are in compliance with U.S. laws and Regulations.
